Item
120	Apologies for absence
	A. Dicken, D. Foden, K. Miles Cllr Foden has indicated that he will be resigning as he no longer feels able to make a full contribution. His very worthy service to Prestbury over approx. 25 years was noted.
121	Declarations of interest
	Nil although a possible conflict of interest became apparent later under 126
122	Public participation
	Kim Brown introduced herself as one of the Co-Op managers in Bollington. She has recently also been appointed as a Community Pioneer covering Bollington and Prestbury. For the first month she has largely concentrated on Bollington e.g. she has been involved with a dementia care group at a church and took part in the remembrance parade. Kim intends getting involved with local schools around e.g. healthy eating and giving away hi vis jackets for walking to school. The Co-Op takes part in a food share programme to groups, individuals who have registered. They are supplying selection boxes for Santa's grotto at the Prestbury Christmas event. Kim stated that she now wished to become more involved with Prestbury. Kim agreed that her details could be passed to the school's PTA If we need any help we should contact Kim Kim was thanked for attending our council meeting and then left as she had interrupted her shift.
